

Click Here
For DropBox link to
downloadable high resolution press images.

Pedestrian view from Independence Avenue looking into Eisenhower Square and the memorial core. The landscape design, along with the tapestry, evokes a landscape abstraction of Abilene and of the "heartland of America."

Image courtesy of Gehry Partners, LLP, 2014

Eisenhower is depicted in his role as the Supreme Allied Commander during World War II. The sculptural composition in bronze is inspired by the famous photograph of Eisenhower speaking with the 101st Airborne Division before their jump into France. Behind the sculpture is a bas relief depicting the beach landing at Normandy on D-Day, June 6, 1944.

Image courtesy of Gehry Partners, LLP, 2014

Sergey Eylanbekov

Large scale detailed maquette of the bronze sculptural grouping commemorating General Eisenhower with soldiers from the 101st Airborne Division on the eve of D-Day.

Sculpture by Sergey Eylanbekov
Image courtesy of Gehry Partners, LLP, 2014

Sergey Eylanbekov

Large scale detailed maquette of soldiers (left).

Large scale detailed maquette of General Eisenhower (right).

Sculpture by Sergey Eylanbekov
Image courtesy of Gehry Partners, LLP, 2014

Tapestry photo montage developed from photographs taken in Kansas is artfully constructed to incorporate Kansas landscape features on the tapestry.

Image courtesy of Gehry Partners, LLP, 2014

